Music Students Earn Bach Trophy

by Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan

Students from Lynchburg are Abie Angel, Angela Woodson and Jennifer Brown. Each student played an original composition by Johann Sebastian Bach ranging from the original minuets with ornamentation to the preludes and Inventions, They will each receive an honor certificate and a Bach trophy from their teacher at their annual Spring 10 piano organ concert scheduled for June 12 at 2:00 p.m. at ACHS.

Miss Susan Rosser

Recipient of Honor Scholarship

Miss Susan Rosser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rosser, Jr., of Appomattox, is the recipient of the Greater Lynchburg Area Honor Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded annually by Lynchburg College and covers the full amount of tuition and academic fees while Susan is a full-time undergraduate at Lynchburg College, subject to maintaining an academic average of 3.00 or above.

Miss Rosser is one of two students chosen from ten applicants. She ranks first in her class and has been very active during her high school years.

Susan plans a sociology-psychology joint major when she enters Lynchburg College this September. Her career goals include becoming a juvenile probation officer.

The Greater Lynchburg Area Honor Scholarship will total over $10,000 for the four-year period.

4-H'ers Sponsor Cystic Fibrosis Walkathon

Nearly 80 4-H members and friends took part in a 10 mile walkathon on Saturday, May 21. The walk was held to raise funds for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and the Appomattox County 4-H program.

The walk began at the Primary School and proceeded over a 10 mile route which ended back at the school. Refreshment stops were provided through the courtesy of the Pepsi Cola Bottling Company and the Coca-cola Bottling Company.

Pledge sheets totaling over $1800.00 were turned in by those participating in the walk. Walkers should collect their pledges by June 10 and turn in their collection at one of the following locations: Appomattox County Extension Office; Miss Pam White at Appomattox Elementary School; Mrs. Kathy Whatley Fidelity American Bank. Mr. Marvin J. House of Fidelity is serving as treasurer of the walkathon. Checks should be made payable to 4-H Cystic Fibrosis Walkathon.

Special prizes including a C. B. Radio will be awarded to the 4-H'er turning in the largest amount of money. Be sure to watch future issues of the Times-Virginian for announcement of the top fun raisers.

Appreciation is due Mrs. Stevie Dunel of the Lynchburg Branch, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for her assistance in organizing and planning the walk; to Mrs. Cynthia Thomas 4-H leader of the Mighty Four 4-H Club who organized and handled the refreshment stops; to Mrs. Gladys Moon who served as nurse for the walkathon; to the Appomattox County Sheriff Department who provided an escort car for the Walkers; and especially to all the 4-H'ers taking part.

4-H'ers and friends who walked are listed below:

Ursula Grishaw, Tina Long, Delores Mosley, Mari Stitt, Audrey Marguis, Lisa Irvin, Carol Lukehart, Wanda Mosley Sharon Archer, Rhonda Weakley, Tammy Ferguson, Shelia Brinkley, Roslyn Megginson, Rita Reynolds, Lisa Dickerson Jane Covington, Donna Pulliam Lynn Pulliam, Shelia Roach, Sharon Roach, Cheryl Guill, Diane Franklin, Jo Ellen Garrett, Cindy McCormick, Lisa Moore, Angela Moore, Tammy K.
